Learning Objectives:

This course has been designed for students with primary knowledge of the Telugu language who can make and figure out simple sentences. The course enables students to construct compound and complex sentences in Telugu. Furthermore, the course empowers the students to acquire skills to comprehend small passages, write short paragraphs, have better conversational skills and teach them the basic rules of translation. The course offers a wide range of exercises from the book, and challenging activities can be given to students, i.e. vocabulary-based activity or a grammar drill, a language manipulation exercise or ap-to-date reading comprehension. A unit that focuses s on particular topics and students who want to practice the language through additional independent study, and open-ended exercises will be included to encourage learners to communicate more spontaneously and to allow some autonomy and creativity. Additional materials and support will be given to the students.

Course Learning Outcome: The course will enable students to understand the distinctions of the language by empowering them with better reading, writing and conversational skills. Students will try to capture radio and TV advertisements, news advertisements and other broadcast programs. They will read short paragraphs in a language related to books, newspapers, magazines, notice boards, posters, personal and other types of letters, etc., and use dictionaries and reference texts. They will also try to write a short portion on select topics, write personal and other types of letters directly on familiar and simple topics, and write independent articles. Students will be able to translate any prose words from Telugu to English and vice versa with the help of a dictionary or through online sources.
